Our Speaker: Hugh Marquis

Founder of Transformational Leadership Australia, International Leadership Consultant

Hugh Marquis is married to Jane and have three children Breanne, Savannah and Owen.

Hugh is a kingdpreneur – creating and building with God for His purpose. Hugh has built, transformed and sold companies spanning many industries including, Hospitality, Human Resources, Telecommunications, Forestry and Information Technology. While he calls Australia home they have travelled to over 100 nations where they have experienced many different cultures and has experienced social injustices like human trafficking, poverty and hunger first hand. This has inspired a journey to transform societies rooted in greed fear and corruption to one motivated by caring sharing and prosperity for all.

Hugh will set you up for great conversations and launch you, your staff and business in a transformational journey that will impact your family, community, city, nation and world.

Everyone attending will receive a copy of Hugh's book " Take Your Framework and Stick It Up Your Pipeline" – Finding a New Normal in Business

Come and receive an encouraging word, network, share, pray and enjoy breakfast. Please purchase your breakfast on arrival before seating.
